Dear Hacterc (oops!)

Sorry about the delay but several things have happened

- 1) I went back to school
- 2) I had job interviews
- 3) I got a job
- 4) I Left school
- 5) I started work

So now I have hardly any time on the computer

I will do you a tune for an intro. If you want the tune for a game it will cost £100 - £200. Rob Hubbard does charge £800 for a tune.

Sorry about my writing.

I must go.
